

Whereas, Tucson Federal Credit Union (TFCU) was founded in 1937 as Tucson Teachers Federal Credit Union, and now celebrates its status as a not-for-profit financial cooperative governed by a volunteer Board of Directors; and,

Whereas, Tucson Federal Credit Union (TFCU) whose membership is open to anyone who lives, works, worships, volunteers, or attends school in Pima County is recognized by its peers as a member-focused local business leader committed to diversity, equity and inclusion; and,

Whereas, Tucson Federal Credit Union (TFCU) continues its tradition of serving as a community partner whose collaborations impact solutions to local social issues and needs; and,

Whereas, the vision of Tucson Federal Credit Union (TFCU) is to raise the level of prosperity for all generations and create thriving communities; and,

Whereas, the mission of Tucson Federal Credit Union (TFCU) is to create opportunities in our community through service, education and access; and,

Whereas, the purpose of Tucson Federal Credit Union (TFCU) is that we exist to empower people to improve lives within our community; and,

Whereas, Tucson Federal Credit Union's dedication to the community is evident in its transformational giving and random acts of kindness.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Regina Romero, Mayor of the City of Tucson, Arizona, do hereby proclaim the second Friday of April to be in this community and encourage all our citizens to celebrate Tucson Federal Credit Union Day in the City of Tucson.

Tucson Federal Credit Union Day

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Tucson, Arizona to be affixed this ...
